

SFIC Electronic Lock Cylinders

Medeco Nexgen XT is a retrofit for SFIC mechanical cores. This electronic cylinder is a direct replacement that does not require any hard wiring, all power is supplied by the rechargeable key.

The Nexgen XT SFIC will retrofit into any SFIC housing, user friendly software provides audit information obtained from the key or cylinder. Lost keys can immediately be programmed and put on the unauthorized list.

Web programming allows for flexible system management, keys can be programmed via remote authorization provided by cellular phone to the key.

Cylinder Features	Key Features
Electronic cylinder powered by key	Small key with stainless steel housing
Stainless steel shell	Rechargeable battery 500-800 operations
2000 audit events	Audit 5,000 lock cylinders
Unauthorized key list	All programming done at key
SFIC core with deadlatch sleeve	Web programming options
	Mobile programming through cell phone